Privacy Policy for Med Exchange International, Inc..

Our Contact Information is:
MedExchange International, Inc.
127 Ramah Circle
Agawam, MA 01001
(413) 736-4828
Send us an email...

For visitors on our website we collect:

- The email address and personal information from the visitors who communicate with us via email.
- Aggregate (General Tracking) information about pages that users visit on our site.
- Any information given to us by users that contact us via inquiry form, survey, etc.The information that we collect is used for:

- Internal review, tracking, or contacting and is then discarded.
- Delivering custom content to our website visitors.
- Improving the quality of our website content and user friendliness for a better user experience.
- Contact information for marketing purposes, including newsletters, emails or periodic advertisements from our company.
- Not Shared with any outside organization for commercial purposes. We may still share this information for tracking and other non-commercial purposes.We may use a standard technology called a cookie for the following purposes.

- Recording Session information for shopping cart or other purposes.

If you are currently receiving a newsletter or emails from us and would like to stop receiving them, please notify us by contacting us by email, phone, mail, at the above address.

We do not partner or use any 3rd party ad services or content delivering services.

With respect to sensitive information, we will redirect the user to a secure page either on our site, or to a trusted 3rd party site before transferring or receiving sensitive data. This information may include credit card or banking information, medical information, or other sensitive information.

For questions regarding our privacy policy or website in general, please contact by; phone, mail, email, listed above.